MAPPY™

Bally MIDWAY

IN HOT PURR-SUIT!
Mappy, the Micro Police, has the run of the house... and run he does! Three mischievous purple cats answering to Meowry are fast on the prowl... not to mention red hot cat Goro who's out to prove who the Big Cheese really is.

THE "OBJECTS" OF THE GAME...
A TV set... radio... safes... a picture. These are just a few of the knockdowns Mappy needs to snatch up along the way. But there's a persistent pack of cats who'd like to get their eager paws on Mappy! That's why you've got to think quick on your feet!

USE YOUR JOYSTICK TO GET A JUMP ON THINGS!
Mappy's got to really move his tail if he wants to escape the cat clutches. And to get upstairs, it's going to take a boost from the trampolines. But remember, he's only allowed 3 bounces on each unless he touches floors between bounces. And don't let Mappy land on a red trampoline or he'll fall right through!

LET THE CATS OUT OF THE BAG AND SCORE!
As Mappy flees, use your button to open a few doors and score points. Open the door with cats behind it and zapp them back through the house, zapp the 1st cat and tally up 200... the 2nd, 400... the 3rd, 800! Corner grinning Goro and get a big bonus! Then grab your loot and make a speedy escape!
